Marching & Drill Corps SZO

The SZO was founded in 1952 and is based approximately 30 km north of Dresden. It performs in the formations Marching and Drill Corps and Junior Band.

The Marching and Drill Corps comprises 67 musicians. The group stands for discipline, perfection, and excellence. Thanks to its high musical quality and distinctive performance style, it has won numerous awards.

The group celebrated its most recent success at the World Music Contest in Kerkrade, the Netherlands, in July 2022, where it won a gold medal and secured fifth place in the world rankings. Since 1999, His Majesty The King's Guard has been a major role model for the SZO. The group closely models its appearance and performance style on the Guard.
